Introduction

Exploring the Sacred Hopi Wisdom
The Road to the Fifth World
(gift of the Hopi)

The ancient Hopi Sacred Story's of Creation tell of our Journey and Pathway from the beginning... and on to what the Hopi call the "Fifth World".

The Hopi remind us of the illusion of separation between the divine, our divine essence, and our personal journey. In taking this journey we are called to Remember our Oneness...to remember who we really are.

The Hopi story is intended to give us direction... so we may gain understanding and may walk [or engage] "our path" consciously and with sure footedness.

Through the story of the Four Worlds we are taught of creation, recreation, and our relationships with self, others, the world, and the divine. WE are guided and guarded by Great Spirit.

WE ARE CALLED TO 'ONENESS'

Chapter 1

TOKPELA

Endless Space

(First World)

In the first world,

Great Spirit kissed the face of Mother Earth and the Song of Creation was born.

Air, the breath of laughter called great wind .

Great wind moved through out the universe singing the joy of love.

Fire, the molten lava of volcanoes eruption called flame of life.

Flame of life is the passion of great spirits embrace of mother earth.

Water, mothers joyful cry called tears. Tears through thunderous storm clouds, oceans, rivers and dew,

is the joyful cry of being embraced by such love.

Earth Mother quaking earth,

awakening to her song of beauty as the essence of life which flowed freely from her great body.

Earth the container for all life and people through all generations.

Together Great Spirit and Earth Mother sang the Song of Creation through the life force of her womb.

And all life were created and considered to be people not just the human being.

All life became the Song of Creation.
